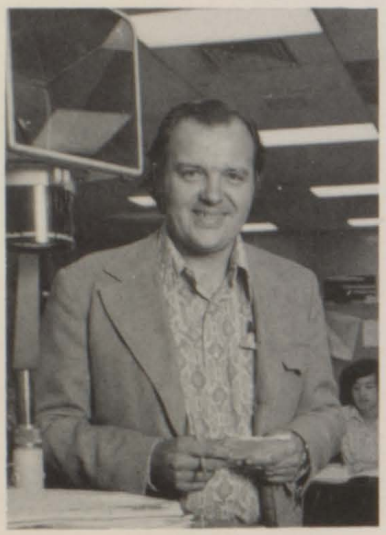
Class of '78



Mr. Woodard–Advisor

Wanda Watson–President

As this years sophomore president I have taken steps to unite one of R.F.A.'s largest classes to become an individual and determined group, especially since we will be the only sophomore class at R.F.A. to start off the Bicentennial year. First we had a car wash then a bake sale and served refreshments at a Syracuse Symphony concert to put money into our treasury. Our first major event was building a class float for the Homecoming Weekend Parade. Our Betsy Ross won the float competition. The second event was the choosing of our class rings which are being ordered in January. The third event is a Donkey basketball game in which we challanged the classes of 76 and 77. More events are in the stages of being planned. I think the class of 78 has started out well in our first year at R.F.A. but we will have to work more on building spirit and involvement in order to make the next few years here successful.

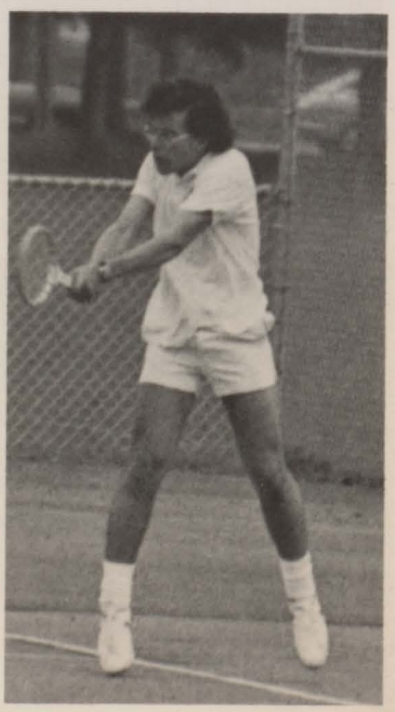
The Rome Free Academy Boys' Varsity Tennis Team is still a young team, but it has improved a great deal in the last year. The total record for the 1974-75 season is 6-8, having won 6, lost 8, and no ties. The honor of "Most Valuable Player" goes to Captain Rob Manfred, who has earned his "Block R" for his exceptionally well playing ability. With the support of Coach Robert VanSchaik, the team did their very best and tried very hard at winning as many games as they could. Maybe it wasn't the most impressive record, but we're proud of them.



Girls' Tennis 2nd in Section III While Girls' Archery Wins Col.

The 1975-76 girls' tennis team had an impressive season. Coached by Miss Demers, the team gained the COL Championship and finished second in Section III playoffs with a final record of 17-0. Including nine shut-outs, the total record for the last 13 years is a fantastic 117-7. In the Section III Regionals, Maureen McInerney placed third in singles. Sybil Houser and Gloria Safarz placed first in doubles, and Leslie Rowlands and Laurie Magnanti placed second, also in doubles. In the Section III Finals, Leslie Rowlands and Laurie Magnanti again placed second in doubles. The team finished the season in the Semi-Finals of the Intersectionals.

The 1975 Girls' Track team, coached by Miss Barbara Smith and Miss Sue Gardner, had one of the best seasons the team has ever had. With a duel meet record of 4-0, the girls were given the COL Duel-Meet Trophy. Orange and Black seemed to be the dominent colors at the invitationals, by taking first in all that they attended.

The most valuable track and field players were Wendy Nelson and Karen Savage, respectively. Mary Beth Guaspari received most improved for track while Kathy Kowal received it for field. Other stand-outs were Anne Bosco in the 440, Gail Glushko in the 2-mile run and the 880 relay team of Anne Bosco, Diana Livingston, Mary Jo Coccia, and Patti Rahrig.

The Varsity Lacrosse team, which was under the direction of Coach Mike Warwick, ended its season with an impressive record of 11 wins and only 5 losses. This was a great improvement on the 1974 record. The tri-captains for the team were Ron Cole, Thom O'Connell, and Joe Schebel. These three seniors in addition to Hansi Gabler, Brian Heaney, Bob Lloyd and Fred Marchione will be missed during the 1976 season. However, next year's team looks quite promising with fifteen returning lettermen. At the lacrosse banquet, Ron Cole was presented the Black "R". Honors for the highest scorer went to Thom O'Connell, while Dale Smith received the Most Improved Player award.

Fall Weekend

This year's Fall Weekend was a great success. The theme was "Dance With Me." It started off with the traditional bonfire and car smash, Thursday, which was followed by a dance sponsored by the Pep Club, featuring Flame.

Friday night was "working night" because everyone was working busily getting the floats ready for the big parade in the city, and judging the next day, and the gym ready for the Semi-Formal.

Saturday was the big football game between R.F.A. and Proctor. It was a good game with the end resulting in R.F.A. defeating Proctor 51 to 6. At half-time the floats paraded around the track with the Class of '78 winning with their "Betsy Ross" float. It was a job well done! The theme was "Spirit of '76." Everyone was to be congratulated on the great job they did on their floats. Following that was the parade of the Homecoming Queen Semi-Finalists. Laurie Goyer was crowned queen with Bruce Van Meter as her escort. Her court consisted of Terryann Grasso, Vicky Boyd, Deb Hert, and Mary Lou Magnanti. Their escorts were John Martin, Larue Chisholm, Mike Thompson, and Lou DiDone respectively. They were all invited by STASS to a dinner at Tosti's before going to the Semi-Formal.

Saturday Evening was the traditional Semi-Formal in the Boys' gym. The music was provided by Moxy; and on the whole was a great success. Congratulations were in order to all the people who gave their time and energy decorating the gym and carving pumpkins.

The Mock Olympics, held Sunday, topped off a great weekend for everyone. Fall Weekend is a fine tradition and one to be continued for a long time to come!

First Musical, "Oklahoma", Fills Auditorium

"Oklahoma" was the first musical ever to be put on by the Rome Free Academy student body. It was a great success and set a trend for many more musicals at R.F.A. The auditorium was packed all three nights of the performance. All credit, with the exception of the very, very few adults who took time out of their busy schedule to help, is due to the students as it was they who wanted, fought, and succeeded in proving to the many, many disbelievers that they could put on a successful production without the help of the people who were too busy to help when they were asked. Altogether, the whole thing was lots of fun and brought everyone closer together.

The cast rehearses before opening night.

Andrew Carnes, portrayed by David Martin, threatens Joe Ferlo, as Ali Hakim, for talking to his daughter, Ado Annie, played by Jeannette DeLong.

R.F.A. Student in Missouri

This past summer was an exciting one for Angela Mellace, this year's A.F.S. student from R.F.A. Angela spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Craig and family of Webb City, Missouri. This is what Angela had to say about her stay:

"I feel that A.F.S. has given me a true experience to find out that there are many different things to life. Missouri is now my second home and I feel that more people within our own country can learn so much about how different it is from your own home. I have learned to cope with things that are important to everyday living. I've learned to understand people and to accept their ways in order to live happily with them. I have shared alot of happiness, sorrow, and feelings with my family. I've met alot of warm and friendly people in Webb City and I feel that a small town, unlike my own, is so different in its ways, its lifestyle and its togetherness. I love Missouri and someday I hope to return. A.F.S. is truly a beautiful program. I only wish that more people could share it with us.

AFS Exchange

Rome Free Academy is too big for my taste because I am not used to the impersonal systems used, such as student numbers. It is very hard to get to know everyone. There are many enjoyable clubs and I derive much pleasure from the various sports and dances.

I am currently residing with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skalwold and their daughter Elise. I have two more years to observe in the Gymnasium, after that I plan on traveling around a bit and then to attend the Academy of Arts in Vienna. What field, I'm not quite sure, but probably goldsmithing.

My home is in Klagenufart, Austria. I will miss all my friends and their companionship made my stay quite enjoyable.

Rotary Exchange

Chantal Musset

Here at Rome Free Academy, pupils seem to be more carefree and they do things just for fun. I have seen some fights. Most everyone takes school loosely. I found it hard to adjust at first, but now I get along well. There are too many people here. When I return to France, I want to study languages (English and German) and I would like to be an Airline Stewardess or maybe an English teacher. I live in Southwestern area of France near Bordeaux. Currently, I am staying with Mr. and Mrs. DiMaggio. They and all my new friends have made my stay here worthwhile and fun.

They process and order new books and try to keep the library in order for the students. Mr. Beam and Mrs. Mortis advise the club. Members are: Jim Daggitt, Dale Arnold, Jen Benjamin, Bambi Orendorff, Debra Washington, Sean McNamara, Carolyn Roth, Joyce Newey, Carol Mehl, and Roy Moore.

The National Bellamy Award

Lori Williams with Lori Laberte

Huntsville High School in Huntsville, Alabama, hosted the 1975 National Bellamy Award. Lori Williams was elected by the Student Association last May to represent R.F.A., Rome, and N.Y. State at the 34th annual National Bellamy Award Presentation. The founder was Dr. Miller, who confirmed that Francis Bellamy wrote the Pledge of Allegiance. Dr. Miller has devoted her life on researching Bellamy. There were seventeen representatives from different states. Each brought a gift to Huntsville. Rome gave a Revere bowl and presented our De-o-wain-sta yearbook to the school. Lori went to different places and did different things. The school gave a southern dinner in their court. She visited the NASA space center, saw a concert at the Van Braun Civil Center, where she also gave a speech on government. "When they say Southern hospitality–believe it! People were really nice, I made a lot of life long friends in such a short time. It's like one big family growing bigger each year. I did so many things I will never do again. And it's an experience I will never forget."

Lori stayed with the Labertes family.

"Curtain Going Up"

On the evenings of November 20, 21 and 22, the R.F.A. Auditorium lights dimmed and a new atmosphere aroused. The senior play, directed by Michael Landau, "Curtain Going Up," was enjoyed by many people that filled the auditorium.

The play is about high school students in the production of a senior class play. Miss Burgess, the director, tries her hardest to get the kids to cooperate, but without much success. Mr. Carter, another helping out with the production, falls in love with Miss Burgess (and that doesn't help matters much). After many rehersals the play is a success and a happy ending results.

The senior class is very proud of their classmates and they hope everyone had an enjoyable evening.
